REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

This has been another school year of great student achievement and academic excellence. The Kershaw County School District (KCSD) was featured in Education Executive magazine for providing a high return on investments in students. KCSD averages were higher than the state averages in 22 of the 26 possible PASS categories. Local seniors' ACT average composite score reached an all-time district high. Fifteen schools—ATEC, Bethune Elementary, Blaney Elementary, Camden Elementary, Camden Middle, Doby's Mill Elementary, Jackson School, Lugoff Elementary, Lugoff-Elgin Middle, Mt. Pisgah Elementary, North Central High, Stover Middle, North Central Middle, Pine Tree Hill Elementary and Wateree Elementary—were recognized in the Palmetto Gold and Silver program for academic achievement and closing achievement gaps. Eleven more KCSD teachers earned National Board certification or recertification, bringing the total number of district teachers who are National Board certified to 139 or 20 percent of the teaching staff.

The district's performance received statewide and national recognition at all levels. Lugoff-Elgin High science teacher Dr. Holly Sullivan received the prestigious Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching. Camden Middle teacher Valerie Willis was named 2011 Outstanding Earth Science Teacher for both SC and the Southeast region. Doby's Mill Elementary Media Specialist Betsy Long was honored as one of 10 national winners of the Carnegie Corporation of New York/The New York Times "I Love My Librarian" Award. Pine Tree Hill Elementary Principal Dr. Lisa Shannon was named the SC International Reading Council's Administrator of the Year. KCSD Teacher of the Year Helen Walker was one of five finalists in the SC Teacher of the Year Program. Camden Elementary teacher Darlene Cantey was named the VFW State Citizenship Educational Teacher of the Year (K-5). ATEC nursing instructor Laura Marshall was selected as the 2012 Outstanding New Teacher of the Year for the SC Career and Technical Education Association.

In addition, the School Improvement Council of Baron DeKalb Elementary received the 2012 Dick and Tunky Riley Award for SIC Excellence. For the second year in a row, the North Central High Tourism Management team won the SC Lodging Management Program Championship and Blaney Elementary's archery team won the Department of Natural Resources' state competition. Doby's Mill Elementary's robotics team won the state championship for the 4th time in six years and 3rd place in the Inspiration Award at the World Festival. Pine Tree Hill Elementary was one of three schools statewide to be honored by the SC Association of Title I Administrators for closing the achievement gap. Baron DeKalb Elementary earned an Exemplary Writing Program Award. Camden Elementary was named a 2011 Blue Ribbon Lighthouse School for outstanding achievement in comprehensive educational excellence for students. The SC Scholastic Press Association named the Lugoff-Elgin High School yearbook the best in the state. Programs funded by the $5.7 million Safe Schools/Healthy Students federal grant continued to provide resources to students and their families. The district's Class of 2012 high school graduates earned $10,656,822 in college scholarships, more than double the amount five years ago.
